

41 SOLID STATE This rustic timber beam wouldn't look out of place in a Tudor cottage, but contrasting the wood with modern fixtures emphasises the beauty of both styles.

GET THE LOOK Railing London can create a mezzanine level like this, from £500 per sq m, excluding finishes. For a similar white feather rug, £190 for a W160 x L230cm design, try WovenGround.

42 WINNING RECIPE An Aga, metro tiles and factory-floor storage – when you pick white as a kitchen theme, you can play with a host of unexpected variants.

GET THE LOOK For smooth metro tiles, £28.45 per sq m, try Walls And Floors. Lawsons makes bespoke kitchen islands in reclaimed oak, with a fabricated steel base if required. Prices start at £800.

43 GREY MATTER These outsize pendants could overwhelm in a different setting, but a backdrop of purist white allows them to seemingly float without effort.

GET THE LOOK Similar Pendel industrial lamps in Grey are available from Norr11, £159 each. For handleless kitchen cabinetry like this, try B1 by Bulthaup, from £30,000 for a similar scheme.

44 ROUGH LUXE Pairing an angular bath with a streamlined vanity unit creates an air of clinical cool. So far, so functional. The whitewashed bricks, however, inject a surprise element – a good way to add edge to any monochrome scheme.

GET THE LOOK The Wetstyle Cube bath, £8,702, at CP Hart is a match. Artelinea's Regolo basin in Opalite, from £1,313, is similar.
